New recording artist, TIM MYERS will entertain with several songs from his debut album, OUTTA NOWHERE, at the Media and Publicity Luncheon of the California Bowling Writers, at the Town and Country Hotel Resort in San Diego on June 2nd at 12 noon.

Tim's album was self-released on March 23, 2007. The songs, all written by Tim, are reflective of his personality. With so many things to say, Myers writes with the raw emotion of a man not ashamed to let the world know how he feels. The disc includes twelve 12 tracks from the heart and run the gamut from lyrics about the environment, tributes to soldiers who have fought for the freedoms of America ("Hey What's New" and "War Baby"), songs about his grandchildren ("Seven Little Angels") and even a love song, written for his wife, Vickie.

With Tim performing and Dr. Dean Hinitz as the keynote speaker, you're in for a real treat, so don't miss out! Deadline to purchase tickets has been extended to May 30th It's Not Too Late! Plan on Attending.

For further information, please contact Luncheon Chairperson, Joan Romeo at 818/997/7152 or via email at romeotmt@pacbell.net. To access a registration form, either log on to the CBW website (www.calbowlingwriters.org) or the CA USBC website (www.calusbc.com).

The California Bowling Writers (CBW), formed in 1998, is open to all California bowling journalists, promoters and supporters of the sport of bowling. The purpose of the organization is to encourage and educate both members and non-members in communication through print, promotion and use of electronic media. At the same time, CBW will recognize and reward those who create media awareness by providing outstanding bowling photography and journalistic excellence.
